6. Old Business

- SLC Lunches went over well and very appreciated
- Lifetouch issues continue
  - Some class pictures showed up early, there were duplicates, parent complaints, class picture placement was awful.
  - Overall, not impressed and there were many upset parents

7. Principals Report

- SLC food was excellent and the teachers appreciated everything
- The book fair turned out and we were able to get volunteers to help out
- Staff will be dressing down for STARS
- The Remembrance Day program was successful
- Found some sound problems when practicing drills. Were able to sort it out and have everything working effectively.
- School custodians- working short staffed.
- Buses continue to be an issue with cancelled routes and no extra drivers, as well as short on mechanics at the bus depot.

- Report cards – Most families are on Edsby. There are still a few who will not get on board with the Edsby system.
- School data has been completed.
- Working on finalizing plans for family engagement at Christmas with grade alike group activities.
- Will begin collecting store of giving items soon and will create a sign-up genius for volunteers to help out during the day.
- Twinkle tour will be held on Dec 12- Signup genius will be created for volunteers.
- Clothing orders- The store is ready for tonight/tomorrow. They have given a Nov 25 deadline to guarantee items arrive before Christmas.

8. Discussions from Principals report –

- Regarding school clothing with siblings coming in, try to place in the same group so they can hand down clothing. (This is already being accounted for when figuring things out, as best as they can.)
- Look at doing a clothing exchange for Better Together and School clothing.

9. New Business-

- Store of giving collection will be happening at the beginning of December.
- Twinkle Tour- Pre order through Tim Hortons
- Share the warmth clothing donation- Stacy will discuss with the town about possibilities. There may be options to work with salvation army or churches. The Alliance church gym would be a potential partner to help provide this service to the community.
- Twinkle Tour Baskets- Stacy will put together at roughly $30-$50 per basket.
- Food Bank donations- Look into a list for needed donations to help out the community.
